We also grow and sell produce. Pretty much anything that is grow-able in this part of Ohio. Our main focus though are the berries and cherries.

Again our produce is also pesticide and herbicide free.

Our main goal is to raise produce, along with meats, as healthy and organically as possible for ourselves and customers.

We raise our calves from a day old to whenever they make weight. During that time they are raised on pasture with the free choice of corn and hay, right here on our farm.

Our cattle are hormone and antibiotic free.
